The 'Prince' Who...

Officials at the prison said that Aryan would remember his time in the jail as he was not given any VIP treatment. "He will sleep well at home on the bed, as he had slept on a mat in his barrack," said an official.

There was less crowd outside Arthur Road jail on Saturday, as against that on Friday. A strict bandobast was in place for the safe release of the inmates. The prison staff was given strict instructions to avoid shaking hands and taking a selfie with the junior Khan.

There was buzz about SRK coming to receive his son, which proved to be a hoax.

Maharashtra Govt plans...

airport in Palghar with Palghar district administration, as the airport with two runways will require land acquisition of over 2,000 hectares.

The announcement comes at a time the expansion of Mumbai airport is stalled due to the shifting of slums. It is plagued with traffic and passenger congestion.

On the other hand, the state government expects that the Navi Mumbai airport, which is projected to handle 40 million passengers annually after its completion, may face problems handling the increasing number of travellers.

In September, Deputy Chief Minister Ajit Pawar had said the state government expects the commissioning of Navi Mumbai Airport in 2024. Earlier this month, the government had inaugurated the greenfield Chipli airport in Sindhudurg district.

G20 pact on minimum...

countries that account for much of global growth will remain behind due to low vaccinations and financing difficulties.

European Union leaders will meet off-site with African leaders in efforts to further support the continent's poorest economies in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic. French President Emmanuel Macron told reporters on Friday he expects the G-20 to confirm an additional $100 billion to support Africa's economies.

Italy is hoping the G-20 will secure key commitments from countries representing 80% of the global economy and responsible for around the same amount of global carbon emissions ahead of the U.N. climate conference that begins Sunday in Glasgow, Scotland.

Most of the heads of state and government who are in Rome will head to Glasgow as soon as the G-20 is over. Russian President Vladimir Putin and Chinese leader Xi Jinping are participating remotely.

On the eve of the meeting, U.N. Secretary-General Antonio Guterres warned that the Glasgow meeting risked failure over the still- tepid commitments from big polluters and challenged the G-20 leaders to overcome "dangerous levels of mistrust" among themselves and with developing nations. The U.N. chief also blamed geopolitical divides for hampering a global vaccination plan to fight the COVID-19 pandemic, saying action "has taken a back seat to vaccine hoarding and vaccine nationalism."

Meeting of minds: PM...

Climate Summit to be held in Glasgow from Sunday.

His Holiness appreciated India's assistance to countries in need during the pandemic, the MEA release said. The meeting, which was scheduled only for 20 minutes, went on for an hour.

"During a brief conversation, the cordial relations between the Holy See and India were discussed," the Vatican Press Office said in a brief statement on the meeting.

At the Vatican, Modi was accompanied by National Security Advisor Ajit Doval and External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar. Ahead of the historic meeting, Foreign Secretary Harsh Vardhan Shringla on Friday said that the Vatican has not set an agenda for the meeting. "I believe, tradition is not to have an agenda when you discuss issues with His Holiness. And I think we would respect that," he had said.

"I am sure the issues would cover a range of areas of interest in terms of the general global perspectives and issues that are important to all of us, COVID-19, health issues, how we can work together to maintain peace and tranquility and this is something that, I think would be the general trend in the discussions," he had added.

Court must give reasons...

granting bail are essential because it is the reasons adduced by the court which indicate the basis of the order. "The duty to record reasons cannot be obviated by recording submissions, followed by an omnibus 'in the facts and circumstances' formula," the court underscored. The court was hearing an appeal against a verdict of Rajasthan High Court which had granted bail to a person accused under the SC/ST Act. The High Court, in its order, had failed to record any reasons for the grant of bail. The order did not mention anything apart from the first respondent's statement and the public prosecutor's opposition to the grant of bail." The court made it clear that such an order cannot pass muster.

management has heavily invested -- a half-fit Hardik Pandya and an out-of-form Bhuvneshwar Kumar, who have been the chinks in this team.

Hardik, who has not been the cricketer everyone feared since his back injury, is playing to save his career. That he hasn't exactly been truthful about the status of his bowling capabilities has been exposed and trying to roll his arm over at the nets speaks volumes of his desperation. His franchise Mumbai Indians are putting him back in the auction pool and time, indeed, is running out for him.

Bhuvneshwar could well be playing his last international tournament. His pace has dropped remarkably in the past two seasons and somewhere he has not been a patch on what his younger competitor Deepak Chahar has been in recent years. Yet, India has punted on his experience and it's high time that he delivers before being shunned into oblivion.

India have shown in recent times, at least, in Test arena that they can come back from the brink with unforgettable performances but Kohli in his last assignment as T20 captain would like to change the script that always seemed to go awry at global events.

More so, because another failure at a mega event could well mean that there will be aspersions cast on his abilities as a white ball skipper and the 50-over leadership will also come under the scanner.

Kohli is a man, who loves it the tough way. He loves a good scrap and a situation where he envisages that the entire world (even if they are not) is out there to get him, conspiring against him and wants to see him fail. He gets an adrenaline rush thinking about such a situation from where he is bailing out the team. But, of late, Kohli the skipper and Kohli the batter have not been in sync. India's presence till the business end is not just an emotional necessity for its billion fans but also a commercial requirement for the tournament to retain its vigour. With the dew playing a major role in the evening, toss is playing a crucial role in the outcome of night matches. After what Shaheen Shah Afridi did to India, India

SC Secy-Gen sent back to...

Chief Justice of India Ranjan Gogoi. He had joined the judicial service in Madhya Pradesh in 1994. The staff arranged a farewell for Kalgaonkar on Saturday, subsequent to a notification issued by the Madhya Pradesh High Court's Registrar General Rajendra Kumar Wani, posting him at Khandwa as the district and sessions judge, against a vacancy.

Notice to cops for search...

activities were being carried out make it clear that lower-income groups, vulnerable and marginalised groups were being targeted and that the police officer appeared to have knowingly selected areas where residents would not be in a position to decline the requests. The contention of certain police officers that the mobile phones were being searched with consent was also challenged in the notice, which has termed the same a "farfetched and pathetic attempt." "It is apparent that the police officers are acting on fear and abusing their wide powers and coercive presence to treat all and any persons as suspects without any reasonable basis... There cannot be a more fundamental right to life and personal liberty than your good office has a sworn oath to protect", the notice stated.
